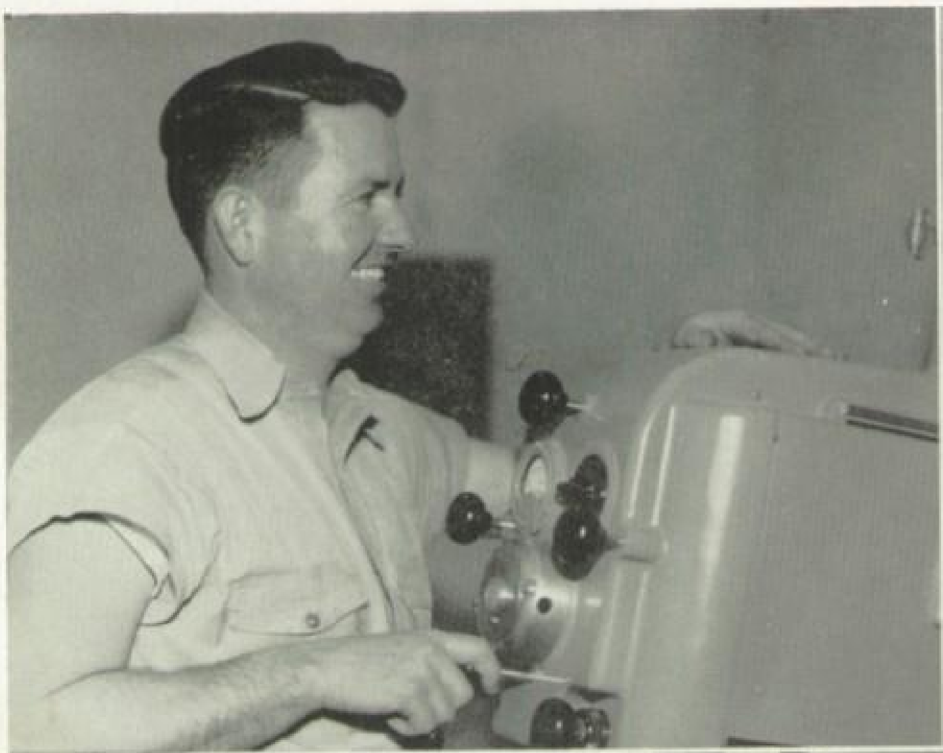
THEY KEEP OUR ALBUM IN ORDER



"Jack-of-all-trades" could very easily be applied to Mr. Sam Yarborough. Whenever the heat goes off, or a light burns out, he is always there, ready to help with a smile on his face.

Keeping our school "as good as new" are our maids and janitors. Through their efforts we are able to have a cleaner, more pleasant place to work. Left to right: John Lawston Stanfield, Wilma Evins, Al Fuller, Cornelia Kemp.

Anyone entering our spacious cafeteria can readily see in what a pleasant place our meals are served. Mrs. Howerton, the cafeteria manager, plans the nourishing menus served us each day.

THEY SET THE TEMPO FOR THE SENIORS

THROUGH THE HOLE IN THE RECORD

1. We're proud of you, George! 2. Hurry up! I'm thirsty too. 3. Williamson's Beauty Salon! 4. Wish I had pretty legs! 5. Guess what day this is. 6. Better late than never. 7. Welcoming the alumni. 8. Where gals gather, there's always chatter. 9. The ever busy key clubbers. 10. Is anybody hungry?

THE RECORD THAT COUNTS MOST

Although we spend much of our time after school hours participating in the wide variety of extra-curricular activities offered, the greatest portion of our time is spent in the classroom. Having a very capable faculty, our teachers are always ready to lend a helping hand. To make our subjects more interesting, we now have a sixteen millimeter camera that has proved beneficial in many classes. We shall never forget the many busy hours we have spent in the classrooms of W. H. S., while preparing for our future lives.

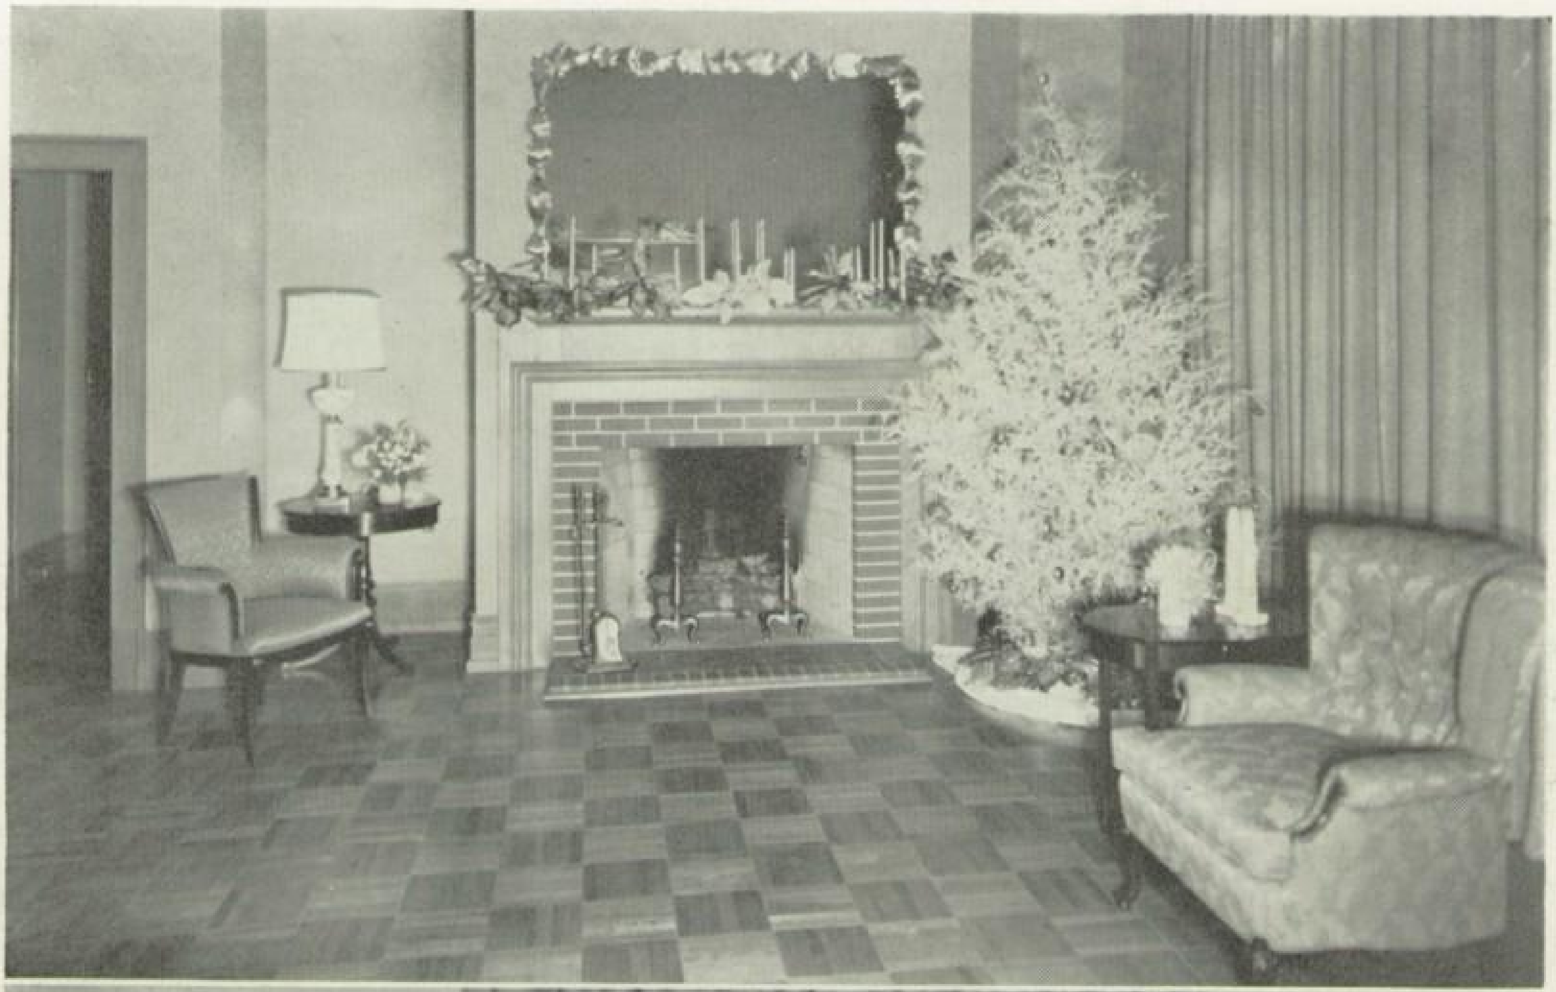
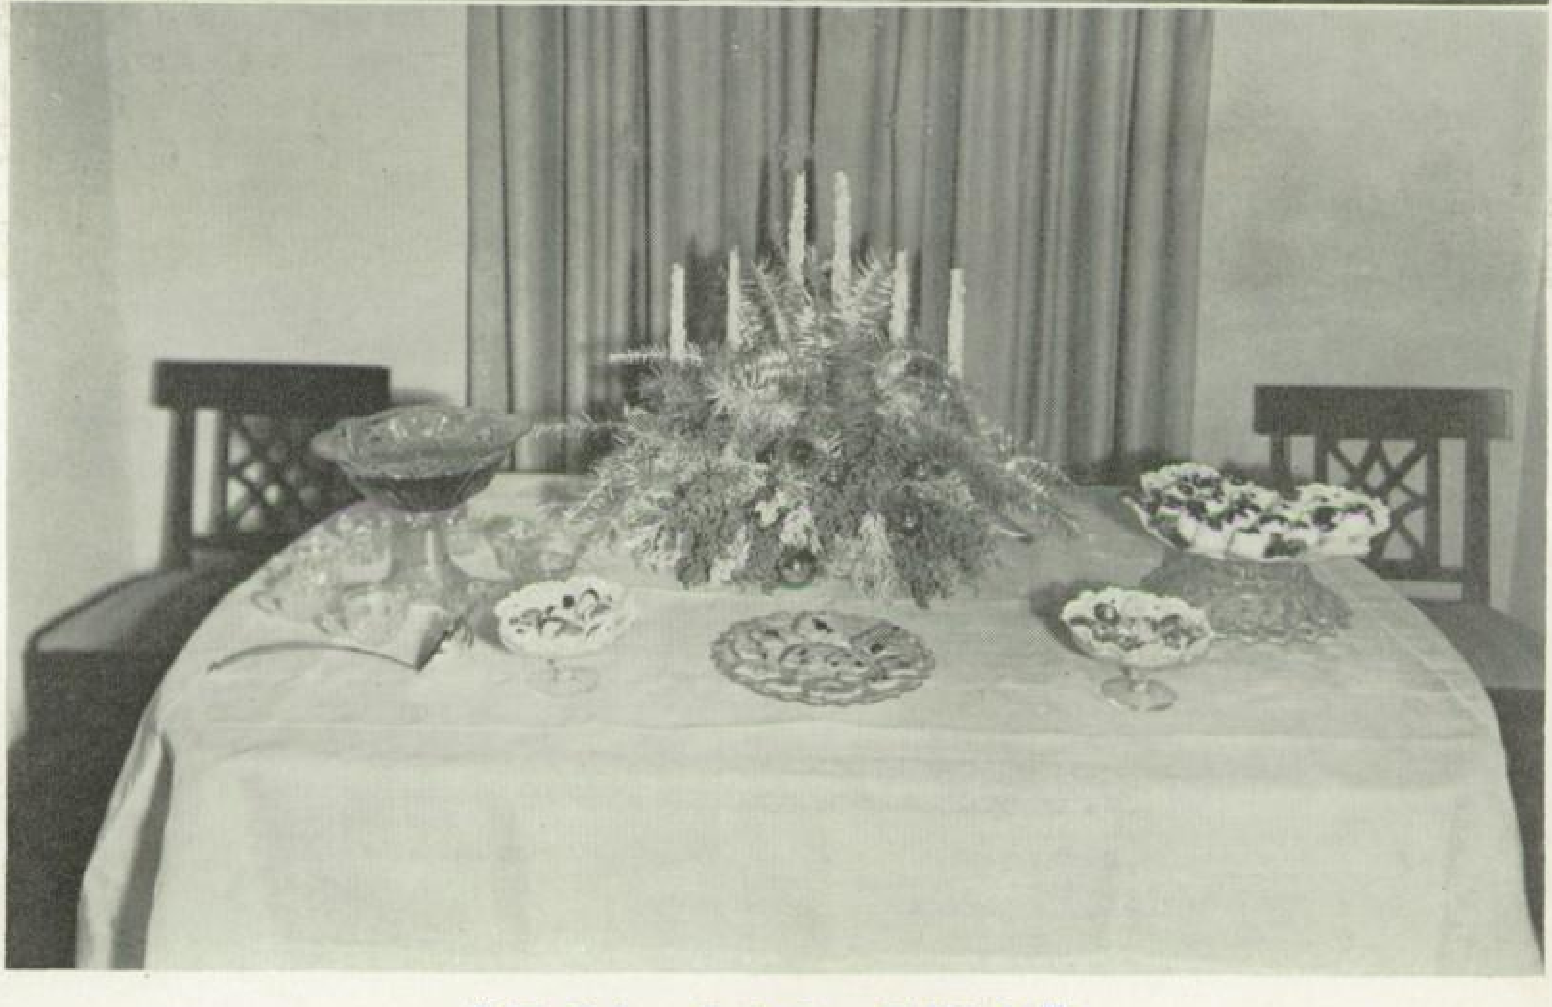
"WHITE CHRISTMAS"

This year the Home Economic classes did a remarkable job of decorating their department at Christmas. It is certainly a credit to have such a progressive department in our school.





"TEA FOR TWO"

Learning the minute details of setting a formal table is only one of the many useful skills taught by our capable Home Economic teachers: Mrs. Pope, Miss Brannock, and Mrs. Rouse.

THEY BROKE ALL RECORDS

Leading the senior class this year in scholarship are:

First row: Alley, Warren, Simmons, Kinney.

Second row: Puckett, Coleman, Patillo.

THEY KEEP OUR RECORD TURNING

Being President of the Student Body is a big job, but Jimmy Chamblee, our president, has carried out his duties conscientiously and faithfully. Always wearing a big smile, Jimmy is a friend to everyone.

Leading the student body are:

President	JIMMY CHAMBLEE
Vice-President	JACK WEST
Secretary	DERYL STOWE
Treasurer	GENE LONG

STUDENT COUNCIL

The main aims of our student council are to make our school life more interesting and to encourage good citizenship. Being the central unit of the student government, its job is to head, back up, and promote student government activities. Our most efficient leaders are: Seated: Gordon, Coleman, West, Stowe, Blakey, Simmons, Touchberry. Standing: Williams, Skinner, Long, Chamblee, Mr. Lindley.

A DAY . . . ANY

Ding! Dong!

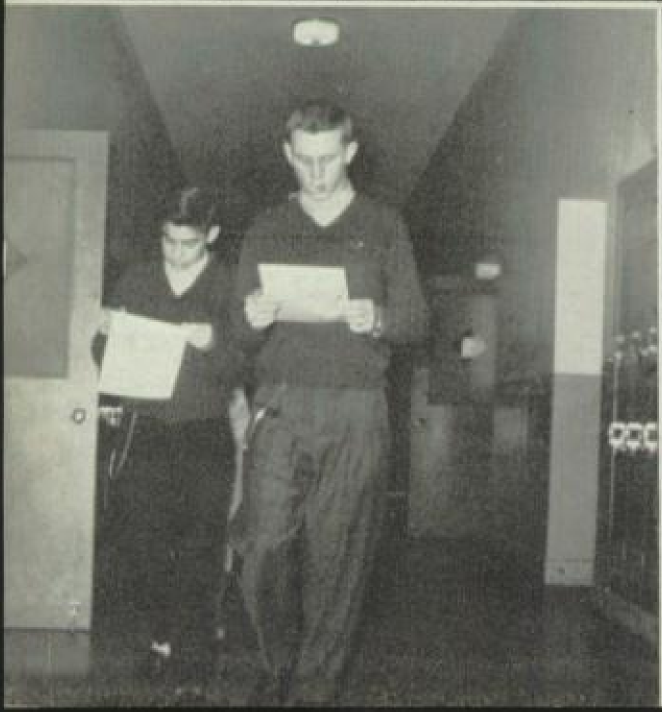
It's almost time for the first bell, and students are beginning to arrive at school.

Only a few minutes 'til school begins, and the parking lot is already full. Those lucky people who drive cars!

The lockers are the first thought everyday. You can always hear someone exclaim—"Oh! I forgot my combination."

Two short bells—and we're off to get the bulletin. All the announcements and news of the day are heard, then we must continue our studies.

The students try to look attentive, but as the minutes tick away, stomachs begin to hug backbones and minds wander everywhere from "sleep" to "what will be on the menu for lunch?"



DAY AT W. H. S.

At last, Hallelujah, there's lunch with a little time left over to rest, or to catch up on the latest news and to find out "who's going with whom?" But before you can catch your breath, it's time to go to class again.

On Fridays it is a familiar sight to see Janice Bare at the organ. Our organ and our organist are something to be proud of. Who would ever think of going to chapel with no music?

When you're sitting in sixth period trying to stay awake, all of a sudden beautiful music seems to come from nowhere. But actually it's our band, an important feature in the school, practicing.

School's out! When the clock strikes 3:15, students come from everywhere and before you know it the school is empty. And so ends a day —any day at W. H. S.

THE 1953 DOE-WAH-JACK

When you grow weary, old, and gray, remember our staff on that happy day. The day the annual is presented in chapel is truly a memorable one for the entire staff, for it is then that we see the fulfillment of all our dreams, plans, and hard work.

In this, the 1953 edition, we have especially tried to compose a memory book that will pleasantly and accurately recall school days.

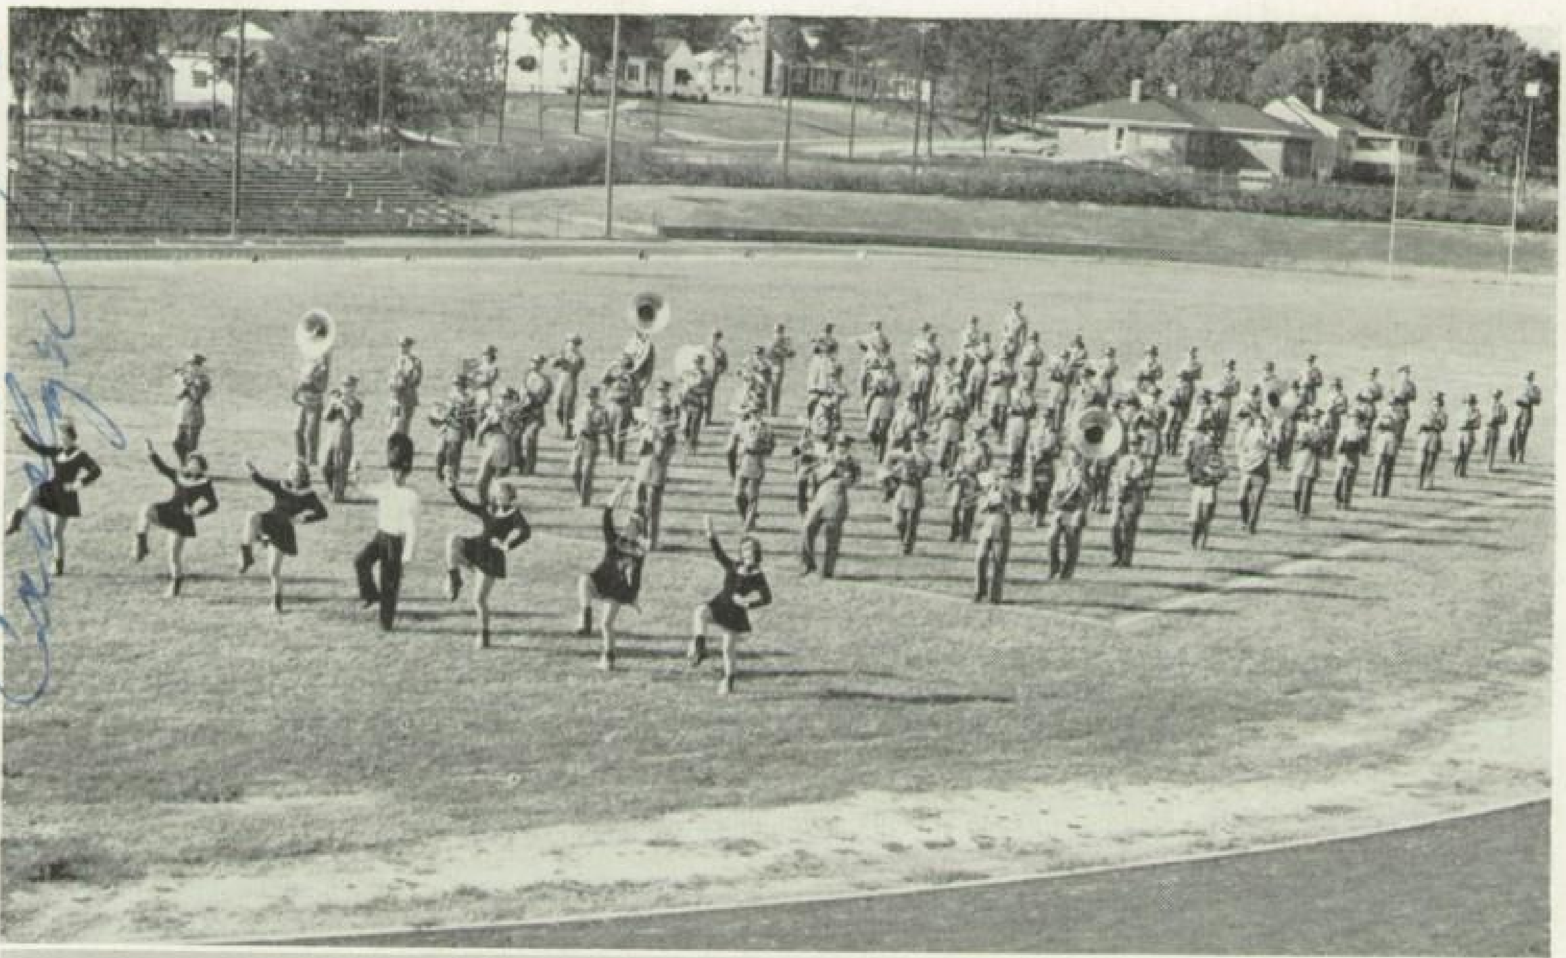
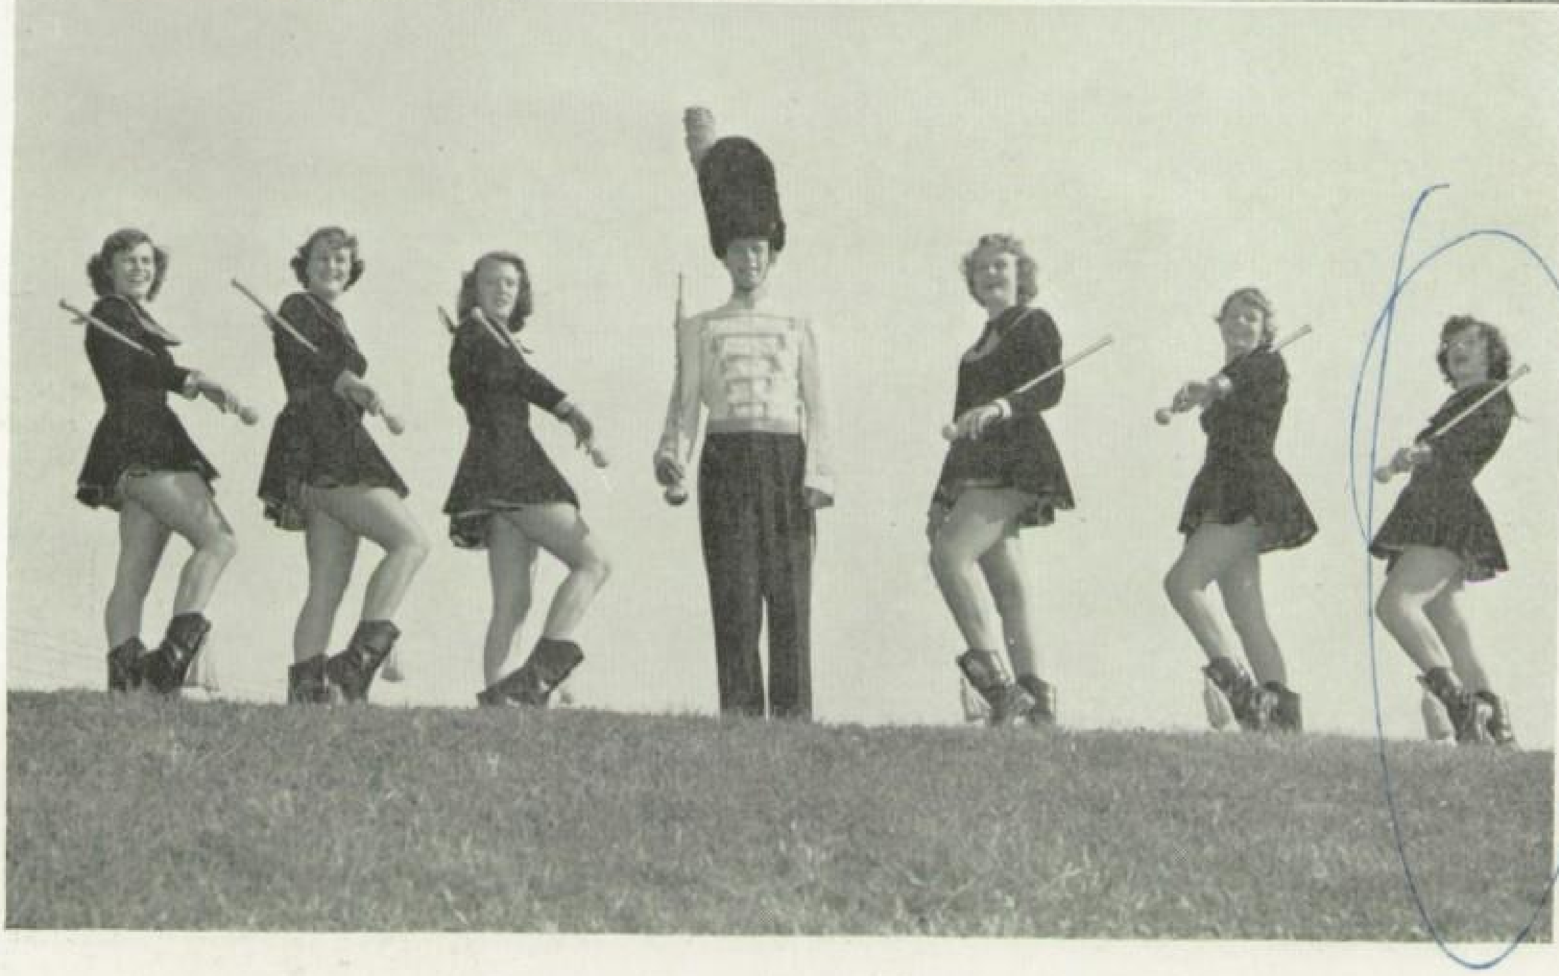
"AND THE BAND PLAYED ON"

"Casey would waltz with a strawberry blonde and the band played on." Below we see our high school band in formation, practicing as they might be on any afternoon in the fall or spring.





THEY KEEP IN STEP WITH W. H. S.

Adding much sparkle and color as they prance in front of the band are the majorettes. They, and the drum major, participate with the band in all activities during the year. Our high-steppers this year are: Left to right: Brogden, Jones, Barnwell, Hadley, Bradley, Simpson, Newlin.

THEY FURNISH OUR SOUND EFFECTS

A pleasant sound to our ears is the music floating out of the auditorium as the band practices during sixth period. Being ready for a parade, game, or concert, the members of the band are: First row, kneeling: Brogden, Jones, Barnwell, Bradley, Simpson, Newlin. Second row: Mr. Cole, Rhodes, Berry, Horner, Sawyer, Petty, Coley, Fox, Toumaras, Kein, Benson, Satterfield, Myatt, Hadley. Third row: McLauchlin, Brock, Smith, Rudd, Mooneyham, Holt, Coe, Halachef, Oakley, Walker, Isley, Clemmer. Fourth row: Harden, Kidd, Burke, McCulluck, Foushee, Thompson, Kakavas, Tickle, Hershey, Qualls, Jones, Patillo, Wall, Boggs. Fifth row: Stewart, Wilson, Dodson, Suggs, Hodge, Poovey, Handy, Allen, Barbee, Langley, Ellis. Sixth row: Edwards, Hinshaw, Browning, Roney, R., Costner, Hager, Montgomery, McPherson, Drake, Sawyer. Seventh row: Southern, Tyson, Stewart, Hargrove, Truitt, Meisonheima, Cheek, Roney, B., Simpson, Guyer, Boone. Eighth row: Crutchfield, Smith, Bradley, Burke, Phillips, Durham, Payne.

Right: Through the efforts of Director James Cole, Williams High has a band of which it can truly be proud.

Performing in various sections of the state, the band marched in the State College Homecoming Parade and played at the Shrine Orphanage Bowl in Raleigh and at Duke's High School Band Day. In February some members entered in the state solo and ensemble contest, as well as the State High School Band Contest in March. The annual spring concert proved that much time and effort had been put into daily practices.

THEY PRODUCE THE VOLUME

Leading our cheers and planning other activities that add to our school spirit, are the cheerleaders which are chosen each year by the entire student body. No sport is complete without them as they add to the winning of the game with their pep and school spirit. This year's cheerleaders are: First row, left to right: Skidmore, Blakey, Head; Foster, Jean. Second row: Coleman, Hoffman, Alley. Third row: Harper, Sartin, Terrell, Barbour, Faulkner, Foster, Joan, alt.

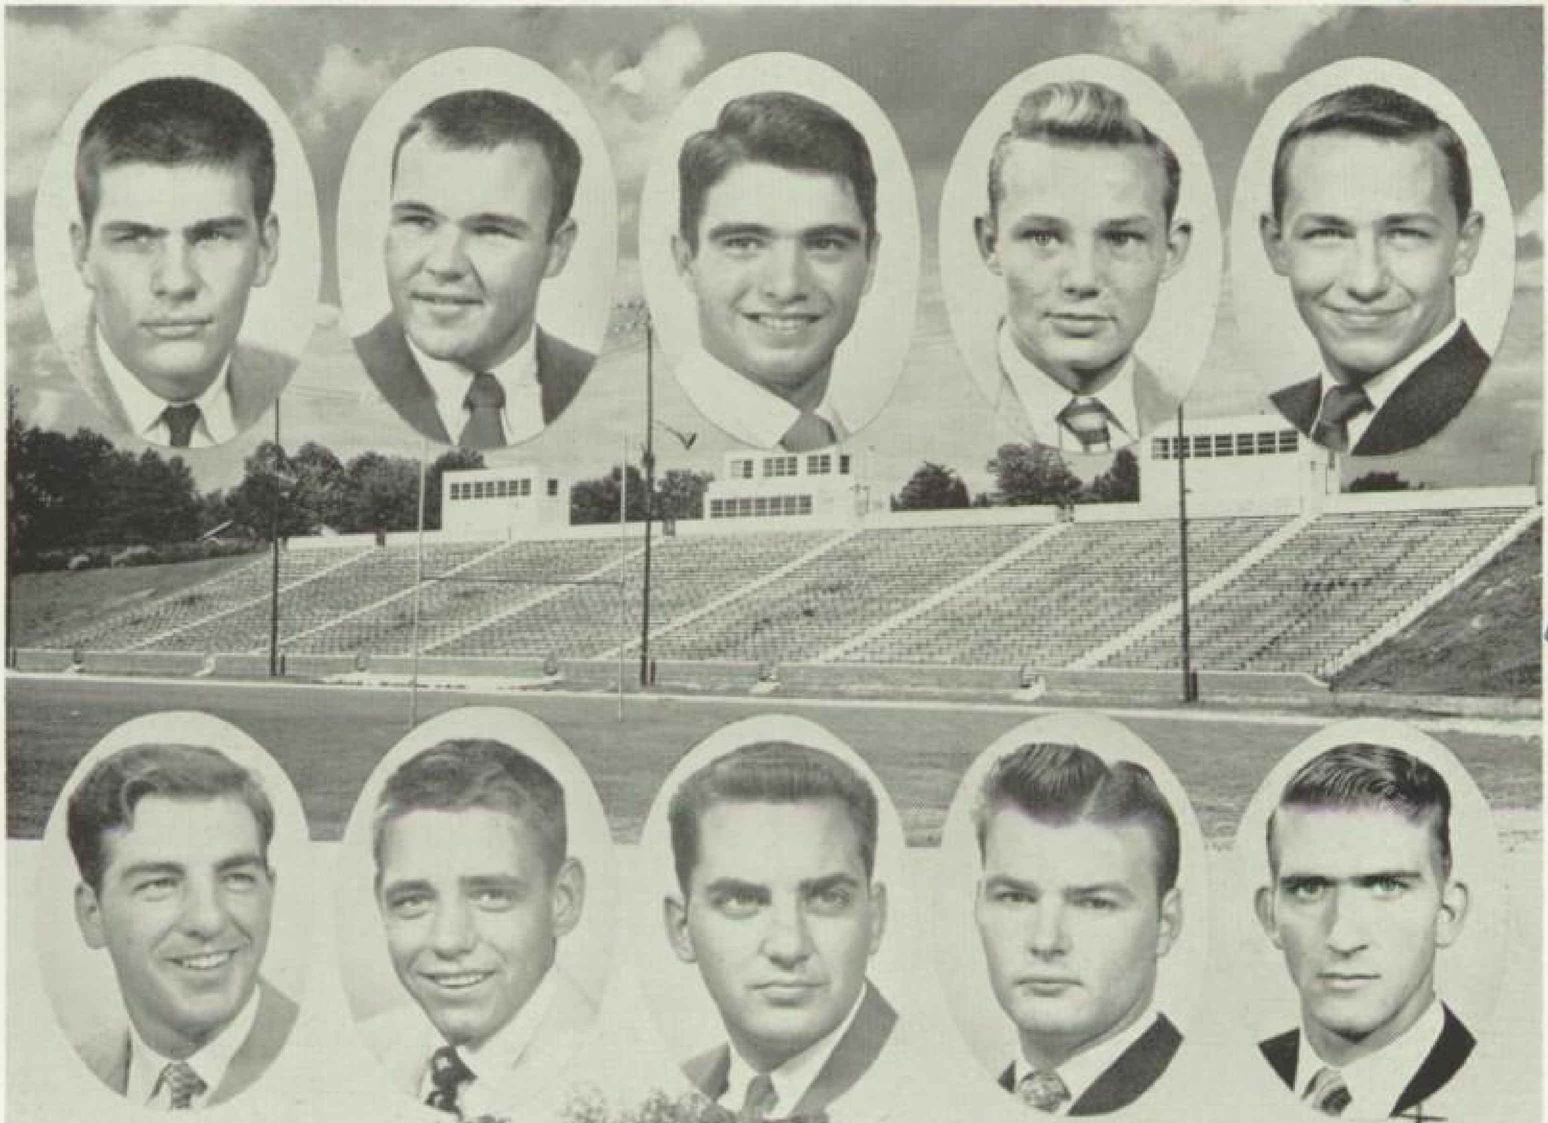
DON'T LET THE STARS GET IN YOUR EYES

Our Monogram Club is made up of lettermen who have received their letters for participating in athletics. Letters and sweaters are awarded in chapel at the close of each season. The lettermen of W. H. S. include: First row, left to right: Mr. Poovey, Moore, Nicholson, Johnson, B.; Gatlin, Brewer, Pres.; Sharpe, Sec.-Treas.; Harris, D.; Vice-Pres.; Boggs, Johnson, J. Second row: Skinner, Barbee, Stewart, Mullis, Webster, E.; Qualls, Foster, L.; Miller, Chamblee. Third row: Boswell, Stuckey, Foster, C.; Diffee, Long, Tate, Dixon, Coleman, Little, Snipes. Fourth row: Cammack, Roach, Brown, Burgess, Davis, Clayton, Trull, Webster, B.; Toms. Fifth row: Harris, C.; Stowe, Coble, King, Goad, Harden, Simpson, Campbell, Miles, Burke.

MR. TOUCHDOWN OF W. H. S.

"Parting is such bitter sorrow," says Coach Stan Huffman as he bids farewell to his departing seniors. Top row, left to right: Toms, Boggs, Chamblee, Goad, Stuckey. Bottom row: Little, Davis, Mullis, Trull, King.

"General" I have really enjoyed being in your Class this year. be a good guy all your life and you will allways have the best. See you around! Tommy Boggs



FOOTBALL SQUAD

Dear Dorty
You are a "good boy" when you really [illegible]
and I hope to be in more of your classes
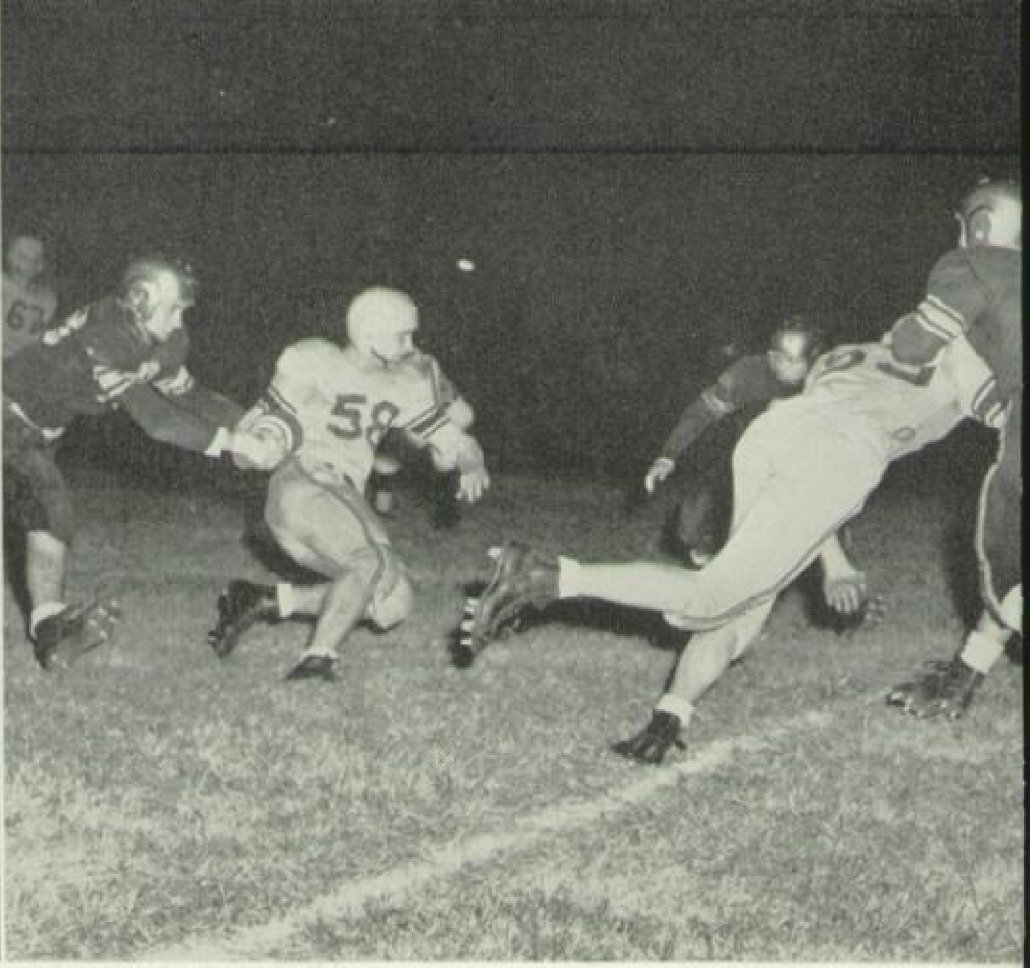
next year.
"Luscious"
Lester

Hagood and Chamblee combine forces to stop Graham's Lineberry as Bulldogs beat Graham 14 to 0.

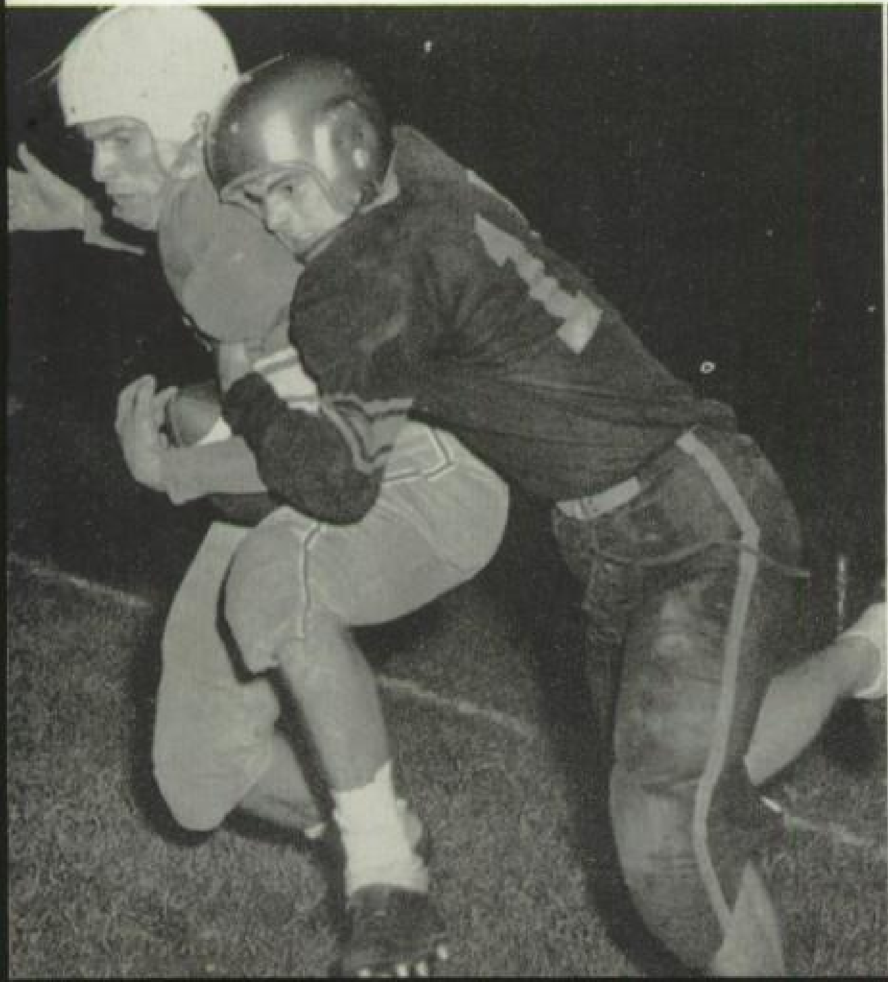


Long appears to be swiping the ball as he drags down a Salisbury back.

"WILLIAMS HIGH WE PLEDGE

Burlington 14	Graham 0
Durham 45	Burlington 7
Asheville 34	Burlington 7
Reynolds 14	Burlington 0
High Point 12	Burlington 12
Reidsville 20	Burlington 14

Gastonia's McGinnis is halted for no gain by Chamblee, but still Gastonia comes out on top with a score of 7 to 0.



Clayton, slashing off tackle, moves the ball closer to the goal line before finally being tackled.

Burlington's Harden is hit hard by High Point halfback after picking up valuable yardage.

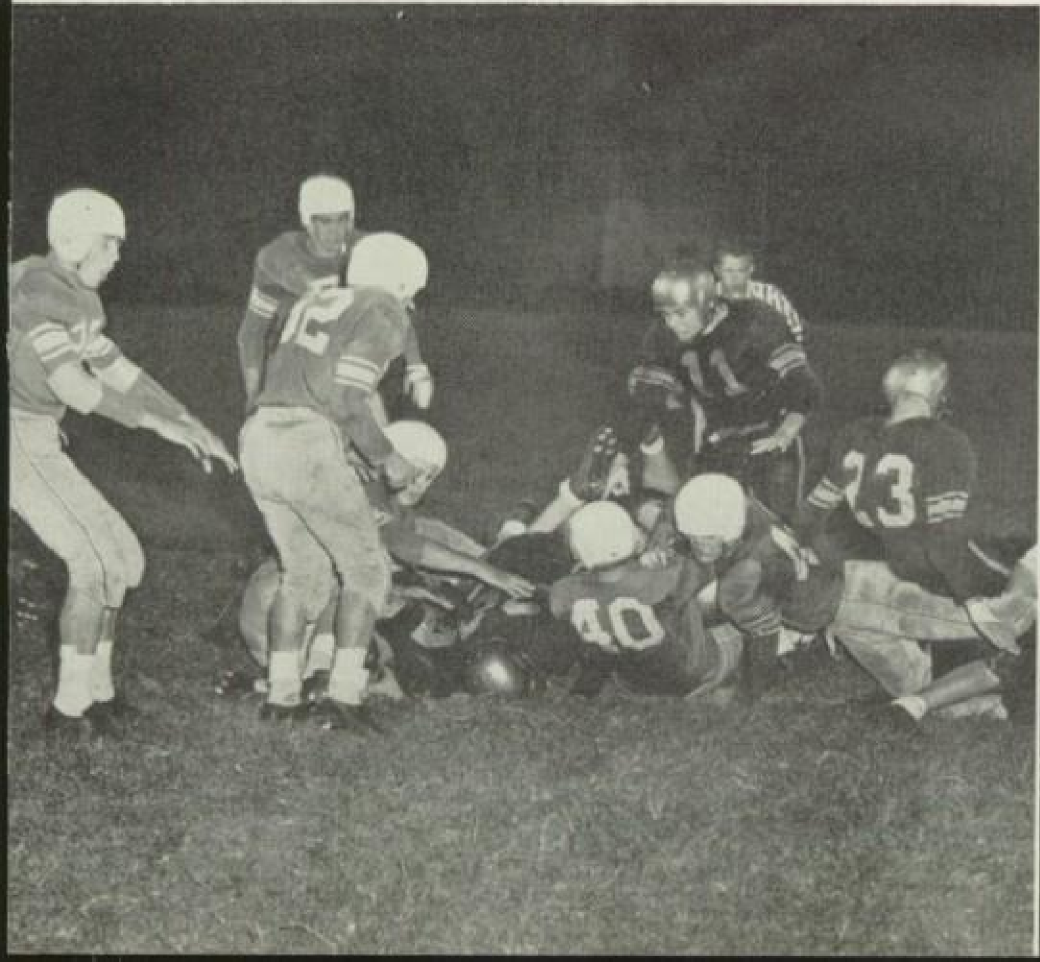
Chamblee scampers around left end for 12 yards as Bulldogs and High Point battle to 12 to 12 tie.

ALLEGIANCE NOW TO YOU”

Gastonia 7	Burlington 0	Charlotte 47	Burlington 0
Raleigh 33	Burlington 27	Salisbury 22	Burlington 7
Greensboro 19	Burlington 0

Somewhere in this tangle is Burlington's Bruce Mullis as he scores the winning touchdown over Gastonia.

When the final gun sounded the jubilant Bulldogs boosted Coach Huffman to their shoulders and carried him off the field.



SHOOT 'EM HIGH, SHOOT 'EM LOW

The basket never seems to have a cover on it when these boys start shooting. Our shooting stars are: Kneeling, left to right: Foster, Mgr.; Clayton, Moore, Sharpe, Nicholson, Burgess. Standing, left to right: Miller, Ass't. Coach; Stowe, Roach, Cammack, Robertson, Burke, Harper, Brewer, Russell, Ass't. Coach; Burns, Head Coach.

"TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME"

"I GET THE BLUES WHEN IT RAINS"

"I'M LOOKING OVER A FOUR LEAF CLOVER"

Burning up the greens is their business, and together they form a hot combination on the golf links. Our pros are: First row, left to right: West, Johnson, Loy, Nuckles, Thomas. Second row: Nicholson, Fowler, Fogleman, Hughes, Mottinger, Brown.

Lots of luck to a swell boy
Pete

"DE CAMPTOWN RACES"

"ONWARD BULLDOGS"

Giving the boys much confidence and boosting their morale are our coaches. Only through their efforts are we able to have such a varied and popular athletic program. Leading our teams are: Seated, left to right: Russell, Linnemann, Burns, Miller. Standing, left to right: Seelinger, Huffman.

Best of luck to a swell fellow! Stan Huffman

"WASHBOARD BLUES"

What team would be complete without the managers? As "nursemaids" of the teams, our football, basketball, and baseball managers should be remembered for their hard work. We salute this year's managers: First row, left to right: Stewart, Qualls, Foster, L., Merritt. Second row: Gatlin, Fogleman, Foster, C., Gwyn.
